THE FRED JARRETT B.N.A. COLLECTION

In this, the first of seven sales featuring the Fred Jarrett B.N.A., we are offering almost all of Mr. Jarrett's pence. In addition there are about a dozen gems from the John Kennedy collection, notably the mint pair of 12d Black. The second and third sessions include the property of many collectors as well as items from the Jarrett and Kennedy collections. We would have preferred to confine this series of seven sales entirely to the Jarrett material; but, of course, we have to continue to take care of other properties for estates and clients.

I was pleased and honoured when Mr. Jarrett instructed us to sell his collection at auction. I have enjoyed knowing Fred since I was a boy. He has been an active collector for sixty years and a foremost student of Canadian stamps for the past forty years. We are all indebted to him for a great deal of what is known about Canadian stamps. His B.N.A. Catalogs published in the 1920's were pioneers in the field. Fred has been, and still is, a most enthusiastic collector. His interests are wide and his collection covers everything in B.N.A. from Stampless to the recent Officials. The collection is well balanced with particular strength in cancellation, covers, large multiples, proofs and re-entries.

The outstanding feature of this sale is the uniformly fine condition. Almost without exception the stamps are attractive and with full margins. Noteworthy items in the current sale are the Essay of the 3d; the very rare Streetsville commemorative crown on cover; the 3d Pembina cover and, of course, the immaculate mint 12d's. Describing and cataloging the stamps was a problem. The many exceptional copies will attract exceptional bidding and merely to have given the catalog number and value would have been misleading. As a consequence, I have given my estimate of what I think each lot will bring. The estimates are purely for the guidance of our bidders and in no sense reserves. My guess is that the majority of the lots will sell between the estimates.

The auction will be held in our regular salesroom. As Fred has an unusually wide circle of friends it is possible that we will have an unusually large number of floor buyers. If you expect to buy in person and bid on the floor, please fill in the enclosed card and we will be happy to reserve a seat for you.

August 19th, 1959. J. N. SISSONS.
